Mr Prakash Shinde i/b M/s Dhruva and Co. for Petitioner.

Mr P.G. Pravin for Respondents.

CORAM : D.K.DESHMUKH J.

DATE : 4TH APRIL 2005

P.C.: -

1. Heard learned counsel appearing for the petitioner at length. I find that the entire award turns on appreciation of evidence on record. The Arbitral Tribunal is constituted by the trade body which consists of persons who know the trade. Therefore, as the award turns on appreciation of evidence and the findings recorded are findings of fact, the award cannot be disturbed in the limited jurisdiction of this Court under section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act 1996. Petition is disposed off.

. Parties to act on the copy of this order duly authenticated by the Associate / Personal Secretary as true copy.
